GOVERNOR WILSON HERE,
PLEASED BY STATE TRIP.

Goes On to Trenton, Saying He Liked Way People Received Speeches.

Greatly pleased and satisfied with his reception in Western New York, Gov. Woodrow Wilson arrived in the city early to-day from Buffalo and passed on to Trenton to transact State business.

The Governor said to-day that he regarded his speeches in Buffalo, especially the one at the evening mass-meeting, as "setting the stage for the campaign," and his "first political address." He was also pleased, he said, with the manner in which the crowds applauded his speech analysing the third party platform. His attitude toward the third party, he said, is that the social reforms proposed by its platform are admirable, but their "method of performance is impossible."

The Governor said he was looking forward to his speech here to-morrow night before the Workingmen's Woodrow Wilson League, his speech on the following Monday before the New York Press Club, and his address at the State Fair at Syracuse on Sept. 12, which constitute, for the present, his New York State engagements.

SENATOR CUMMINS
OUT FOR ROOSEVELT.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 2.—Senator A. B. Cummins, Progressive and candidate for the Presidency at the National Republican Convention, issued a statement to-day in which he opposed President Taft, said he will vote for Roosevelt, and went on record as opposed to the nomination of a third party State ticket in Iowa at the State convention, which Roosevelt will address here to-morrow.

In saying he would vote for Roosevelt for President Cummins added: "But it must be understood that I will do so, protesting against the organization of a new party and dissenting from some of the doctrines announced in his platform."

"Old-Fashioned" Macy's

Herald Square, New York 34th to 35th St. Sixth Floor

"From the Acorn, the Oak"

"Old-fashioned" Macy's is a replica, partly in appearance and wholly in methods, of the old Macy Store of more than half a century ago.

The Macy Store, like the Oak from the Acorn, grew in strength and substance, gradually but surely, until it gained the commanding position that is conceded to it to-day.

To-day it is the Oak amidst the forest of Department Stores. But on our Sixth floor you will find the Acorn—a miniature, yet complete, store-within-a-store, where unperturbed fixtures, prices lowest of the low, and utter absence of costly show and ostentation, all combine to bring back the "good old days."

Every day in "Old-fashioned" Macy's, you will find prices cut lower almost than you would believe—goods that are inexpensive because they come in lots too small to advertise—special offerings unsuited to more pretentious Departments. And yet everything is fresh, new, up-to-the-minute in style and vogue—and also, of course, of unquestioned "Macy" quality.

"Old-fashioned" Macy's! Yet in nothing is it old-fashioned save in the spirit of economy, the resolution to offer sound, substantial goods only, the wish to give full value for money—in a word, the underlying principles that have been the groundwork of Macy success.

This is the reason why it will repay you to visit "Old-fashioned" Macy's. You will find there everything that you could expect to find elsewhere. The quality will be equally good, but the prices lower.
